LYRICS

The sands of time may be running
And there's less wind in the sails
We're older and getting bolder
The last of the winter ale
Just a handshake is all that's needed
To discover there's more to life
And it's only for fellows inside our doors
No need to worry about the wife

Time flies there's no tomorrow
Shoulder to Shoulder no need for sorrow
Come on now, there's life in the old dogs yet
Getting away from trouble and strife
Giving more purpose to everyone's life
Lots of friends that you just haven't met
In our Men's Shed

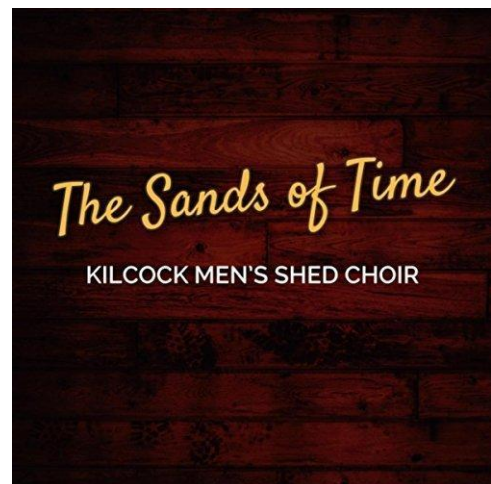

We help ourselves, we help each other
For we find it's good for the soul
Shedders become your friends for life
And work in progress a home from home

Sure we're no school and we're old school
And we're all in the same boat
It's the company and the friendship
That keeps the Shed afloat

Time flies there's no tomorrow
Shoulder to Shoulder no need for sorrow
Come on now, there's life in the old dogs yet
Getting away from trouble and strife
Giving more purpose to everyone's life
Lots of friends that you just haven't met
In our Men's Shed

Time flies there's no tomorrow
Shoulder to Shoulder no need for sorrow
Come on now, there's life in the old dogs yet
Getting away from trouble and strife
Giving more purpose to everyone's life
Lots of friends that you just haven't met
In our Men's Shed
